Circuit Court.

The June term of Circuit Court convened in this city yesterday, with Judge Jas. Breathitt presiding. The session will last four weeks and the docket is the largest for many years. There are 635 cases to come up for a hearing. The murder case of Bob Coleman will be called Thursday. The Wootton case is set for the 15th day of the term and the Garrett case for the 18th.

Sent Back For Trial.

Jim Hughes, convicted of the killing of Marshal Smiley at Providence several months ago, and given a sentence of six years in the penitentiary, took an appeal and the decision of the lower court has been reversed. Hughes will be tried again and the general opinion prevails that he will be acquitted. It seems that Smiley had not properly qualified as an officer and therefore had no right to arrest Hughes.

Two Deaths in One Day.

Lafayette, Ky., June 1.—Miss Anna Rogers, daughter of Mrs. E. F. Rogers, died at the home of her mother one mile from this place last Saturday morning, aged about 42 years. She had been in ill health for some time, but was confined to her bed only a short while. She was a member of the Methodist church a number of years.

Mrs. Julia Anderson, wife of J. R. Anderson, of the Bennettsville neighborhood, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. S. M. She leaves an aged husband and one daughter with a host of friends to mourn her loss and to sympathize with them in their bereavement.

COMMENCEMENT WEEK

SOUTH KENTUCKY COLLEGE TO CLOSE THIS WEEK.

Twelve Graduates Will Receive Diplomas—Announcements For The Next Session.

Sunday was the commencement Sunday for South Kentucky College. Eld. H. D. Smith preached the sermon for the occasion at the Christian church at night to a crowded house. It was a very fine discourse and was listened to with the closest attention. The sermon was suitable to the occasion and made a deep impression not only on the young people to whom it was especially addressed, but upon young and old alike.

Yesterday was the day for final examinations and the actual work of the students was completed. The examinations were held in the college.

This evening at 8:15 the Junior entertainment and oratorical contest will come off in the college chapel.

On to-morrow afternoon at 3:30 the Board of Trustees of the college will hold their annual business meeting at the First National Bank.

Wednesday night at 8:30 the graduating exercises will occur at Holland's Opera House.

There will be twelve graduates, four young men and eight young women. Following is the list, showing the degrees to be taken:

Frank D. Rash, Earlinton, Ky., A. B.

W. Barnett Blakemore, Paris, Tenn., A. B.

Miss Ella Shadoin, Hopkinsville, A. B.

Miss Lela O. Diuguid, Hopkinsville, B. S.

Miss Germaine Crumbaugh, Hopkinsville, B. S.

T. C. VanCleave, Hopkinsville, B. S.

This session has been a very successful one and the school is in a flourishing condition. Prof. J. W. Hardy, the present president, will go to Mayfield to live, as soon as his work here is done.

Prof. S. S. Woolwine, of Nashville, and Prof. A. C. Kuykendall, of the present faculty, have leased the college property for five years. Prof. Woolwine will be president and manage the girls' department and Prof. Kuykendall will be secretary and treasurer and will continue at the head of the boys' department.

MAY BE MURDER.

A shooting that is pretty apt to result in a killing occurred at Beverly Saturday night.

The colored population had a festival in the blacksmith's shop at Beverly and a fight came up between Albert Dade and another negro whose name is not known. Dade pulled a pistol and shot at the other, missing him and hitting Lee Radford, who was in no way concerned in the fight. The ball struck Radford in the side and passed clear through his body making a wound almost necessarily fatal. Radford was still alive yesterday morning, but his condition was regarded as hopeless. Radford lives with his brother who is a farm hand at Ernest Steger's, near Longview.

Dade lives at I. H. Cayce's, near Beverly. He has made no attempt to get away and was at work as usual yesterday. No warrant had been sworn out for his arrest yesterday afternoon.

As the grand jury is now in session, the case will doubtless be investigated without an examining trial.

A Big Failure in Whisky.

Owensboro, Ky., June 4.—M. V. Monarch Company filed a deed of assignment to J. A. Lyddane. Liabilities are $100,000, assets estimated at $80,000, consisting of real estate and whisky. Mr. Monarch, personally, and his other companies are not involved.

Dr. George M. Sternberg, of Washington, was elected President of the American Medical Association. Dr. J. M. Mathews, of Louisville, was elected First Vice President.

THE SECOND DISTRICT MAN NOMINATED FOR CLERK.

The Democratic Platform The Straight Goods—Proceedings of The Frankfort State Convention.

Frankfort, Ky., June 2.—After permanently organizing at the afternoon session by electing Geo. S. Fulton, of Nelson, permanent chairman, and retaining the temporary secretaries, the convention adjourned till 8 o'clock. Two ballots taken showed the candidates well bunched, with Mason in the rear. At midnight the convention adjourned till 9 o'clock Thursday.

THE LAST DAY.

Frankfort, Ky., June 3.—Sam J. Shackelford, of Daviess county, received the Democratic nomination for Clerk of the Court of Appeals this afternoon on the 10th ballot which resulted as follows: Shackelford 571, Green 523.

The convention was called to order at 9:30 and Chairman Fulton made a strong appeal for harmony and for the convention to proceed in order.

On the arrival of the morning train and the announcement of the arrival of the Dispatch the convention asked for time. Senator Hays moved that recess of ten minutes be taken to read the Dispatch. It was declared carried and the papers were spread over the hall.

The motion of Chas. M. Mescham, of Hopkinsville, that no further nominations be made and that the voting be confined to the candidates now before the convention meant business and that things were going to be done to a close, if it could be done by the delegates.

The third, fourth and fifth ballots were merely the casting of each candidate's instructed vote and the greatest excitement was occasioned pending the tabulation of the vote of the sixth ballot, as, according to the resolution the hindmost name should be dropped. Delegates began to pull for their friends and there were hardly a half dozen delegates in their seats. On the count Green, Leck and Mason's name was dropped.

During the seventh ballot it was shown that the fight was between Green and Richardson. Delegates began to get quiet, and keenest interest was manifested. As the votes of Mason shifted to various candidates cheers went up. Green told her to a majority of Mason's vote.

The seventh ballot resulted: Green, 278; Watson, 192; Ford, 184; Shackelford 201; Richardson, 230.

Ford's name was dropped.

On the eighth ballot it was apparent that Ford was throwing his vote to Shackelford.

The eighth ballot resulted: Green, 319; Richardson, 241; Shackelford, 323; Watson, 212.

Watson's name was dropped.

On ninth ballot Graves, Watson's county, went for Green.

There was increased interest in the ninth ballot, which resulted: Green, 437; Shackelford, 381; Richardson, 278.

Richardson was dropped.

During the taking of the tenth ballot the convention hall was a perfect sea of excitement.

THE FINAL BALLOT.

CLERK COURT OF APPEALS,
SAM J. SHACKELFORD, of Davies.

CIRCUIT JUDGE,
THOMAS P. COOK, of Calaway.

COMMONWEALTH'S ATTORNEY,
W. R. HOWELL, of Christian.

Jas. A. Garfield, son of the late President of the same name, has been nominated for State Senator by the Republicans of the 24th Ohio district.

There are already four announced candidates for Governor on the Democratic ticket in 1899. They are Gen. P. Wat Hardin, Senator Wm. Goebel, Capt. W. J. Stone and Hon. Wm. B. Smith.

Earthquakes have been reported in Montana, Iowa and even in Louisville within the last few days. Having exhausted the subject of airships, the correspondents seem to be turning their attention to seismic disturbances.

Efforts are being made to exact from Sam Shackelford a promise that he will not pass a free cologne law during his term as clerk of the court of appeals. It is thought he will make the promise in the interest of "peas and hominy."

Col. Jno. B. Castleman, late member of the fifth district on the State Committee of the "National" party, has returned to the Democratic party and will submit his claims to the Democratic primary June 22 as a candidate for park commissioner, in Louisville.

Nearly all of the Music Hall nominees in Louisville have gone into the coming Democratic primary. The lists were closed Saturday with 178 candidates for the 80 offices. The Democrats are now united and harmonious and will enter the contest for municipal offices very hopeful of success.

The Louisville Post says Green was Blackburn's candidate and that Green's defeat would doom the doom of the "Blackburn Oligarchy," and yet in the same column it "regrets" that it cannot support Shackelford because he is "saddled with Blackburn." The trouble with Dick Knott is that he was born an ass.

Since being formally blackballed along with the other traitors and declared renegade in the party, the Louisville Post has been agitated and hauled down its alleged "harmony rooster." There is but one way for the Post to get back into the Democratic fold. It must clothe itself in sackcloth and ashes and come in at the back door, crawling on its belly.

The Frankfort convention was a harmonious gathering of the representatives of a united party. All of the defeated candidates made speeches pledging their hearty support and the people will approve the work of the convention by 20,000 majority. Even the Louisville factions have decided to rally under one standard and win an old time victory in Louisville. The Democratic party of Kentucky was never in better condition.

The recent Democratic convention adopted a resolution offered by Ollie James that denounced the Courier-Journal, Times and Post as traitors, unworthy the support of Democrats, and formally kicked them out of the party they still claim to represent. In a convention of a thousand delegates there were not half a dozen dissenting votes.

The minutes of the meeting of the Kentucky Press association held at Georgetown a year ago have been issued, but in an incomplete form. The book does not contain a list of the officers of the association, the constitution and by-laws and other features usually included for the convenience and information of members. These missing features will doubtless appear in the official program of the approaching meeting at Middlesboro on the 16th inst.

Among the "early bird" candidates for Democratic nominations in 1898 and 1899 are the following:

"Ex Congressman W. J. Stone, of the first district; Gen. P. Wat Hardin, State Senator William Goebel, Hon. W. B. Smith and Maj. P. P. Johnston will be candidates for Governor. If they have not said so, their friends have for them."

Senator C. C. McChord, of Washington county, will be a candidate for Lieutenant Governor. The Hon. W. P. Thorne, of Henry county, will also be a candidate for Lieutenant Governor.

Senator George S. Fulton, of Bardonia, says he may be a candidate for Attorney General.

Mr. Ollie James will be a candidate for Congress in the first district.

Mr. Charles W. Metcalf, of Bell county, will be a candidate for Secretary of State.

Col. I. B. Nall, of Louisville, and Judge W. G. Gosson, of Bowling Green, will be candidates for Commissioner of Agriculture.

Mr. Lee Suter will be a candidate for Congress in the fifth district.

Unless Mr. John D. Carroll, of Henry county, concludes to retire permanently from politics, as will probably be the case, he will be a candidate for Attorney General.

Congressmen Wheeler, Rhea, Berry, Settle and Fitzpatrick will be candidates for re-election. Col. Jerry Will not be a candidate for Governor, though it has been said by some that he would.

The advocates of the single gold standard, known on the official ballots as the National Sound Money party, are to hold a state convention in Louisville on July 14. Instead of taking their own vote at the late election, they have adopted the vote cast by the successful party for President five years ago as their basis of representation. After a candidate has been selected it will be necessary under the law to put him on by petition, as the National ticket last year failed to poll two per cent of the total vote cast, which is the lowest per cent that entitles a political organization to claim to be a party. It is proposed to name as the candidate for clerk of the court of appeals either Senator R. H. Ellison or Judge W. H. Yost. The former will not run unless assured of the Republican nomination also and as this is not likely, since the fusion bill failed of passage, Judge Yost will in all probability be the candidate, unless he should conclude that the business is unworthy a man who has been honored by the Democratic party as he has been.

Nicola Tesla, the young scientist who has pursued his investigations under Edison, announces that he has produced electrical devices by which he can telegraph messages without wires. This beats the airship stories, but we may expect to see many strange things before the end of the present century, now only thirty months off.

Owen J. Brewster sued C. S. Miller's Sons, undertakers of Louisville, for refusing to bury the body of his wife, they having blackballed Brewster for an old debt. The Appellate Court decides against Brewster, holding that an undertaker cannot be compelled to bury a corpse, but has a legal right to refuse to enter into a business contract except upon his own terms.

Miss Isabelle Perkins, the richest young woman in Boston and one of the richest in the United States, worth $17,000,000, will be married Thursday to Larz Anderson, of the United States legation at Rome. The bride is 20 years of age and very pretty.

Greater New York contains one farm of 280 acres and a number of smaller plantations. But Gotham is expected to grow.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years it was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proved Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address, F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 76c. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

Sweet sixteen.

There is a beauty that is peculiar to old age. There is a beauty that is characteristic of middle age and fully developed womanhood. There is a beauty, also, which is seen only in babyhood and girlhood. But the beauty over which poets rave and artists linger is feminine beauty peculiar to the age of sixteen. At any time of life disease is bad enough; but when disease steps into a girl's life in time to deprive her of that peculiar grace which ought to be hers at sweet sixteen, it is far worse. Such was the unhappy experience of Mrs. F. M. Badgett, of 819 New street, Knoxville, Tenn., when she was a girl, she writes:

"When I was sixteen years old I suffered with female weakness of the worst kind and had spent all I had in trying to get cured. I had tried several of the best physicians, but all failed to cure me. I gave up all hope of recovery and thought I was fast approaching consumption. Finally my teacher recommended Pe-ru-na to me, and lent me the money to get Pe-ru-na, as I hadn't any. I was fast cured. I took the Pe-ru-na and it cured me. I am a well developed and healthy woman, and I owe it all to Pe-ru-na. I had suffered for several years with female weakness. I am sure I would not be living now if it had not been for Pe-ru-na. I can not help recommending it to sufferers."

Sent for Dr. Hartman's latest book, written expressly for women. Sent free by The Pe-ru-na Drug Manufacturing Company, Columbus, Ohio.

The Louisville Commercial publishes editorially this surprising bit of information:

"The McKinley prosperity has really begun, and people will recognize it generally when the tariff is out of the way and Congress has adjourned. The manager of the New York Clearing house, who is about to take the first vacation he has had in years, and whose position has made him a very accurate observer of business and financial tendencies, says that he is convinced that our people have already entered, without knowing it, on a period of prosperity."

"The following from the New York Journal may be a little irrelevant but it is not far from the truth:

That Kentucky minister who did the praying for the Legislature is to receive no pay for his services. When the action of the Kentucky Legislature is taken into consideration it would seem that this is one instance where Governor Bradley exercised his veto power wisely."

The King of Siam has definitely decided to visit this country this summer and will in all probability take in the Nashville Centennial. A real live King ought to prove a great drawing card.

THE PLATFORM.

By the Democracy of the State of Kentucky, in convention assembled, it is Resolved, First—That we hereby reaffirm our faith in the principles set forth and enumerated in the platform adopted by the Democratic Party at the National Convention held at Chicago in July, 1896, and we re-adopt said platform as the platform of the Democracy of Kentucky.

Second—That the principles adopted and set forth in that platform are the true principles of Democratic faith, and we urge upon the Democracy to stand by them at all times and under all circumstances and conditions.

Third—That we endorse the canvass made by William L. Bryan, the nominee of the Democratic party for the presidency of the United States in the late election. We commend his wisdom, approve it as just and fair to all parties and interests of our common country. We recognize in him the peerless orator and statesman and the great champion of the people's rights against the money power, the monopolists, the syndicates and trusts and pledge him the support of a united Democracy in our State.

Fourth—That we condemn the dishonesty, corruption and incompetency of the present Republican State Administration. It has resulted in disorder, encouraged crime and increased the burden of an already overtaxed and oppressed people.

Fifth—That the Democratic party has always been and is still the friend and protector of the laboring man, whether in the field, the mine or the workshop, and we recommend the passage of such laws as will prevent any competition of the products of convict labor against the products of free and honest labor.

Sixth—That we remember with pride the heroic efforts of our late Senator, the Hon. J. C. S. Blackburn, and those who so nobly stood by him in the recent canvass, to prevent our State from being misrepresented in the Senate of the United States, and we commend the Democratic members of the Legislature for their successful efforts to defeat the iniquitous measure intended to change the election laws of the State in the interest of fraud and corruption.

Only one or two changes were made in the State Committee. Jno. L. Dunlap succeeds W. O. Head, in the fifth district, and two vacancies were filled caused by resignations. The party law remains the same with a few unimportant changes.

"The Foot of a Fly" says an eminent English doctor, "will carry enough poison to infect a household."

In summer-time, more especially, disease germs all the air, multitudes are infected, fall ill, die; multitudes escape. These messengers of mischief do not exist for millions. Why not? Because they are healthy and strong—protected as a crocodile is against gunshots. It is the weak, the wasted, the thin-blinded who fall; those who have no resistive power so that a sudden cough or cold develops into graver disease. We hear of catching cold. Why not catch death? We can do it by always maintaining our healthy weight.

Health and Pleasure Resort.

In this issue appears an advertisement of that popular health and pleasure resort, Cerulean Springs, Messrs. W. S. Goodwin and W. A. P'Pool, of this city, the owners of the Springs property, have made many improvements on the grounds and the hotel and cottages have been furnished throughout, ready for the season of '97, which is now open. At present there are a number of guests at Cerulean and every day from now on there will be new arrivals. Although the hotel is a large one it is expected that early in the season every room will be taken. The opening ball occurs on the evening of the 18th inst., and a tremendous crowd of young people will be on hand to give during the season and it is safe to say that all of them will be largely attended. A first class Italian band has been engaged to furnish music and will remain throughout the season. For a good quiet place with water unsurpassed for this country, indigestion, dyspepsia, kidney troubles, blood diseases, etc., there is no place that excels Cerulean. Situated in a pretty country and surrounded by woods, makes it a cool and inviting spot to spend a few weeks from the busy cares of city life during the hot summer months. The Ohio Valley railroad will give reduced rates during the season and persons desiring to leave Hopkinsville in the morning will arrive at the Springs before breakfast. They can also leave at 2:30 p. m., or at 6 p. m., and arrive in plenty of time for supper. The management of the hotel will make every effort to make the stay of people who find it cheaper to go to this pleasant place than to stay at home. A large number of Hopkinsville people visit Cerulean every summer and they are always benefited by the water.

Messrs. Goodwin & P'Pool are gentlemen who enjoy a wide acquaintance and are exceedingly popular with all and they will exert every effort at command to make this the most popular place of the kind in the State.

Their tables will always be loaded down with the best of eatables the country by markets afford and the people who patronize Cerulean Springs will always be pleased with their stay and go home happy.

A FIGHT WITH BEARS.

A Woman's Brave Battle for Her Little Ones.

Alec McLeod is a woodsman who lives in a little cabin in the wildest portion of the southern Catskills, near Peshawar mountain. One morning in the latter part of January, after a heavy fall of snow, he found fresh bear tracks in his dooryard. Calling his dogs, he took his rifle, and with visions of fresh meat in his mind, followed the tracks of the two bears that had visited his cabin.

After her husband went away, Mrs. McLeod went out into the yard for an armful of firewood. While at the woodpile she heard the house dog bark fiercely, and at the same time the cries of the little boy, calling to her. With what proved to be wonderful forethought, she seized an ax from the woodpile and started for the cabin on a run.

Half way up the ladder leading to the loft of the cabin she found her little boy Sammy, and at the foot of the ladder a huge black bear was looking up at the screaming child and snapping its huge jaws together viciously. Over in the corner the cradle, which had contained her sleeping baby, had been upset, and the child lay on the floor. Between the child and a second bear stood the brave little fox terrier, barking fiercely and snapping at its giant adversary. Mrs. McLeod shouted to her little boy to run into the loft. A kick from her foot knocked the ladder down as soon as he did so. Then she sprang between her baby and the second bear. Aiming a blow at the bear with the ax which she held in one hand, she seized her baby with the other and threw it back upon the bed. Then began the battle for her own life and that of the baby. Both bears attacked her.

One of them, standing on its hind legs, advanced toward the intrepid woman. As it came within reach she sliced off part of one of its sides with a blow from the ax, causing it to retire. As the bear turned away from her to attack the little girl, who was snapping at it in the rear, the second bear advanced. She used her ax with telling effect upon it, burying the blade in its neck twice, and finally hitting it squarely between the eyes, so as to split its head open and end its life.

The first bear, momentarily drawn off by the dog, then returned to the attack. It crowded her into a corner, clawed her clothing from her body, and knocked her from her hands with a blow from its great paw. Just at this minute little Sammy, who had been witnessing the fight from overhead, cried out to the little dog, which again assailed the bear fiercely on the flank. As the bear turned on the dog, Mrs. McLeod recovered her ax, and with a fortunate blow, killed the second bear.

The combat had lasted but about five minutes, yet in that time the interior of the cabin had been almost wrecked. As soon as she realized that she had conquered and that danger to her and hers was past, the brave woman fainted. A few minutes later and before she recovered consciousness, her husband followed her laying hands upon the cabin. He had followed the bear tracks for a circuit of about a mile back to his own cabin door.—N. Y. Times.

FOUND A VAST CAVERN.

Its Discoverers Think It Runs Under Sandusky Bay.

Great claims are being made of the beauty of a cave recently discovered near the southern line of Wyandotte county, O. At a recent visit the party gained entrance to the cave by crawling on their hands and knees. Once inside the eyes of the explorers were met with an iridescent glare of the beautiful stalactites, which glittered like so many diamonds in the rays of the torches and flambeaux carried by the party. Many of these mineral formations were in the form of colossal columns which reached from the floor of the cavern to the vaulted roof. The main passage or entrance led into a larger chamber from which several openings in all directions and into larger or smaller room-like additions.

The party traveled the passages which they considered to be the main ones, and after a number of hours' travel they were obliged to cease their explorations on account of the lights they carried being more than half consumed. From observations made by means of a compass and pedometer it was decided that the party had covered more than six miles of the cave, and that they stopped almost under the town of Castalia. The residents of Castalia have always claimed that a subterranean cavern lay beneath the town and that Cold Creek, the famous trout stream, emanated therefrom. The members of the party are of the opinion that they did not view one-twentieth of the cave in their hurried tour of inspection. It is even contended by some of the explorers that the cave runs under Sandusky bay and Lake Erie and that the famous Perry's camp at Put-in-Bay is but a continuation of it. The stalactites and stalagmites are of the same peculiar formation.—Detroit Free Press.

COMMISSIONER TO CUBA.

Judge Calhoun, of Illinois, Selected by President McKinley. W. J. Calhoun, of Danville, Ill., a prominent lawyer and politician, has accepted the position of special commissioner to Cuba. He had been originally named to Cuba, but had been assigned to duties which were to be assigned to Judge William R. Day, of Canton, O., recently named an assistant secretary of state.

The chief purpose of Mr. Calhoun's journey will not be to investigate the circumstances surrounding the death of Dr. Ricardo Lozano, who had been originally planned. An examination into that case, if made at all, will only be made in an incidental way. The commissioner will be instructed by President McKinley to correspond to the existing practice of the law will be governed by the existing treaties and the Cushing protocol. With such a report as the basis for correspondence between the state department and the authorities at Madrid, the president expects within a brief period to secure the release or fair trial of all American citizens against whom charges are now pending in Cuba.

Mr. Calhoun is a lawyer of much experience, having an extensive practice at Danville and Chicago. He was a schoolmate of the president, and was during the president's mission to Cuba, which secured the Illinois delegation for McKinley at St. Louis. He has never held public office, but has nevertheless been conspicuous in Illinois politics.

It is not believed that the Spanish government can make any valid objection to Mr. Calhoun's mission to Cuba as a legal adviser for Consul General Lee and all citizens of the United States now in prison there. Technical objections might be advanced on almost any other basis, but as the Spanish authorities invariably recognize the right of the United States to send to the line of its territory, it is thought, to refuse Mr. Calhoun every facility for performing his work.

LOVEJOY MONUMENT. Erected at Alton by That City and the State of Illinois. Alton, Ill., is preparing to celebrate the dedication of the Elijah Parish Lovejoy monument. To the appropriation of $25,000 made by the state legislature in the spring of 1896, the erection of this monument the citizens of Alton added $5,000, and the Lovejoy Monument association has had charge of its erection. Arrangements are being made to complete for the dedication to take place on Decoration day. Gov. Tanner and his staff will be invited to take part in the ceremony, and an effort is being made to make the observance of the dedication general throughout the state.

LOVEJOY MONUMENT. Erected at Alton, Ill., at a cost of $30,000. The monument is constructed of Quincy granite. The base is very much like that of the Lincoln monument in Lincoln park, Chicago. A shaft of granite 90 feet high, surmounted by a figure of Victory, representing the victory of the freedom of the press, stands in the center. A shield upon the lower part of the shaft bears a medallion portrait of the martyr, with the inscription: "Elijah P. Lovejoy, editor, then owner, of Alton, Mo., November 8, 1832; Alton, Ill., November 7, 1837. A martyr to liberty." The sculptor is Robert P. Brinhaus, of St. Louis.

Elijah Parish Lovejoy founded the Observer in St. Louis in 1827, a religious paper, which republished slavery. Fearing mob violence, he removed to Alton, Mo., but opposition was as bitter there, and three times his press was destroyed. Warned that another attack was to be made upon his place, Lovejoy and a few friends attempted to defend the building. The mob was repulsed, but when Lovejoy attempted to leave the building, he was shot dead upon its threshold. His defense was the first armed resistance to the slave power in America.

Gladness Comes

With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills, which vanish before proper efforts—gentle efforts—pleasant efforts—rightly directed. There is comfort in the knowledge, that so many former ailments are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a constipated condition of the system, and the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs, promptly removes. That is why it is the only remedy without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore all important, in order to get its beneficial effects, to take when you purchase, that you have the genuine article, which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only and sold by all reputable druggists.

If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, laxatives are not needed. If afflicted with any actual disease, one may be commended to the medical physician, but if in need of a laxative, one should have the best, and with the most uniformity of effect, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.

DEATHS.

HOWARD—Sivley Howard, aged 7 years, daughter of Chester Howard, died in the city Sunday of fever.

Excellent Outing in Store.

On account of hard times and general depression in business the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad Company did not run the usual personally conducted excursion to Old Point Comfort last year. There are many persons in Western Kentucky and Tennessee who take advantage of the exceedingly low rate every year and visit Virginia relatives, and as the opportunity was not offered them last season, the railroad company has decided to run another special train to the sea shore this year, leaving about August 10, when all can take a three weeks' outing at very small cost. It is a little early to announce the exact date of departure, but it is pretty certain that the date will be fixed for not later than August 12. The round trip fare will likely be the same as it has been in past years and the limit of tickets will also be about the same. This is one of the most pleasant trips that one can take during the hot month of August and the prospects are that the number of people who will go this time will be the largest on record for similar trips. Already many have been making inquiry and now that it is announced that the train will certainly be run, others will make up their mind to join the party. Later along the exact date, rates, etc., will be officially announced.
